CHRISTIAN CHURCH.
The attendance and interest were good at the "Woman's Day" services last Sunday. The program was in the hands of the women and they made it a sane and very helpful one. The collection was good and the membership of the Missionary Auxiliaries to the Church was materially increased. At 11:00 a. m. next Sunday the pastor will answer the question: Why attend the Lord's Day Morning service? At 8:00 p. m. the subject will be "The River Jordan."

A K. C. ROMANCE.

John went to visit Nancy
The best part of a year,
But his salary was not fancy,
So no wedding day seemed near.

So Nancy soon grew tired
Of a lover bold but slow;
John found that he was fired—
Nancy had another beau.

To AVERY'S STORE he quickly flew
The unhappiest of all men;
It's right down on Grand Avenue,
Numbers Thirteen Eight and Ten.

He was trembling and excited
As in the store he stood,
But soon he was delighted:
AVERY said, "Your Credit's Good."

A YEAR LATER.

They own a home, are out of debt,
It was a happy marriage;
To AVERY'S STORE they've gone to get
A little fourwheeled carriage.

Our service is everyday service, capable of serving one or a thousand or tens of thousands with equal facility

IT is a service that is as perfect as human endeavor and experience can make it — with each year just a little nearer the goal of perfection and each day a little better than the day before. Christmas sees this service at its very height of efficiency. Those who come to us with their gift problems find us eager to help in the solving of them.

This is naturally true because our service is so good. It doesn't mean simply the acceptance of your money and the wrapping of your purchase.

It means courteous treatment—a good morning here and a smile there.

It means worthy merchandise fairly priced.

It means complete assortments of goods in all the Christmas lines we carry.

It means the lowest prices possible on goods of merit.

It means wide, roomy aisles with little or no congestion.

It means a well ventilated store, with high ceilings.

It means the thousand and one little attentions which go unnoticed, perhaps, but which are so necessary to the complement of the Emery, Bird, Thayer Service.

We are ready to serve you—come to the Store of the Christmas Spirit.

Select your gifts early — early in the day and early in the month. When our exclusive novelties are sold out they will not be duplicated again this year.
